Numb. 12792.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday October 3, to Saturday October 7, 1786.

St. James's, October 7.

THE following Addreſs of the Biſhop, Dean and Chapter, and Clergy of the Dioceſe of St. Aſaph, has been preſented to the King by His Grace the Lord Archbiſhop of Canterbury: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, the Biſhop, Dean and Chapter, and Clergy of the Dioceſe of St. Aſaph, aſk Leave, with unfeigned and loyal Humility, to congratulate your Majeſty on your late Deliverance from the Knife of the Aſſaſſin. When ſuch Dangers are ſometimes permitted to threaten the greateſt of the Sons of Men, we are authorized by Scripture to regard them as the awful Admonitions of Providence to conſider the Importance of their Duty, and the uncertainty of the Time allotted to fulfil it. May your Majeſty's Mind be always duly impreſſed with a religious Senſe of thoſe Virtues and publick Services which the higheſt of all human Stations requires at your Hands. May your always poſſeſs thoſe Powers of Mind, and that enlarged and active Benevolence, which are requiſite to preſide with Wiſdom over a People that was once virtuous, and that is ſtill generous, brave and enlightened. In offering up theſe Prayers we depart not from our Character as blameleſs Miniſters of the Goſpel, and we wiſh to enrich your Majeſty with greater Bleſſings than is in the Power of Flattery to invent; we wiſh you the Glory, the Virtue, and the heavenly Prerogative of making a great People happy under a mild, uncorrupt, and able Government; and we include in our Wiſhes the laſting Security and Splendor of your Royal Houſe; that warm Attachment and Fidelity in your Subjects which only the Senſe of their own Happineſs can inſpire. And may that Happineſs every Day increaſe, by a general Imitation of thoſe amiable domeſtick Virtues of which your Majeſty and your Royal Conſort have given the World ſo fair an Example.

[Signed by the Biſhop and 58 of the Clergy.]

The following Addreſs of the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Rocheſter, has been preſented to the King by the Reverend Doctor Courtenay, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Rocheſter.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Dean and Chapter of your Cathedral Church of Rocheſter, humbly beg Leave to approach your Throne with our unfeigned and hearty Congratulations on your Majeſty's happy Eſcape from the late Attempt on your Royal Perſon.

Fully ſenſible of your Majeſty's ſincere Concern for the Intereſt of Religion and Virtue, ſo ſtrongly exhibited in your Majeſty's bright Example, and of your paternal Care and Protection of the Church, we devoutly pray, that the ſame gracious Providence which ſo lately protected may long continue to preſerve to your People your invaluable Life, and to crown it with increaſing Bleſſings of Comfort and Proſperity.

Given under our Chapter Seal this Twentieth Day of September, in the Twenty-ſixth Year of your Majeſty's Reign.

The following Addreſs of the Preſident and Fellows of the Royal College of Phyſicians in London, has been preſented to the King by Sir George Baker, Bart. Phyſician to the Queen, Preſident of the ſaid College, attended by Sir Clifton Wintringham, Bart. and Dr. Richard Warren, Phyſicians to the King, Dr. William Heberden, Dr. William Pitcairn, Dr. John Turton, and Sir Lucas Pepys, Bart. Phyſicians in Extraordinary to the King, Dr. H. Revell Reynolds, and Dr. William Watſon, Cenſor, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was peaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Preſident and Fellows of the Royal College of Phyſicians in London.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt faithful and loyal Subjects, the Preſident and Fellows of the Royal College of Phyſicians in London, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty, with all Humility, to expreſs our Duty and our unfeigned Joy for your Majeſty's happy Deliverance from the Danger of a moſt deſperate Attempt on your Sacred Perſon; an Attempt, which only Inſanity of Mind could have ſuggeſted, and which only the Divine Interpoſition could have fruſtrated.

Glory,

[Price Seven-Pence.]

Glory, Sir, reſults from Danger. It is in Situations of Surpriſe and Alarm, that the genuine and noble Qualities of exalted Minds are eminently diſplayed and diſtinguiſhed. The collected Firmneſs and Compoſure with which your Majeſty met the horrid Attack, and the Tenderneſs and Compaſſion exerted in the ſame critical Moment for the wretched Aſſailant, are recent Proofs of that Magnanimity and Benevolence, which have ever characteriſed your Majeſty, and endeared you to the Hearts of a brave and generous People.

Whilſt all Ranks and Orders of Men are zealouſly profeſſing theſe Sentiments, it may not miſbecome us, Sir, to bear Teſtimony to your more private and perſonal Excellencies. Courts and Palaces have rarely been the Scenes of Abſtemiouſneſs and Temperance. That your Majeſty, amidſt all the Incitements to Gratification and Indulgence, ſhould ſteadily perſevere in an unexampled Forbearance, is at once an upbraiding Remonſtrance againſt the unhappily prevailing Luxury, and the ſtrongeſt Security for the Preſervation of your Health, for the long Continuance of your ineſtimable Life, and conſequently of the national Happineſs.

May the merciful Hand of Providence be ever extended over you, for protecting your Sacred Perſon from Outrage and Violence! We rely with perfect Confidence on your Majeſty's habitual and determined Virtue, as the ſureſt human Means of averting from you the ordinary Calamities which are incident to our Nature.

College of Phyſicians,
Oct. 5, 1786.

J. R. Reynolds, Deputy Regiſter.

The following Addreſs of the Lieutenant-Governor, Council and Keys of the Iſle of Mann, having been tranſmitted by Richard Dawſon, Eſq; Lieutenant-Governor of the ſaid Iſland, to the Right Hon. Lord Sydney, His Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, has been preſented to the King: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Lieutenant-Governor, Council and Keys of the Iſle of Mann.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lieutenant-Governor, Council and Keys of your Iſland of Mann, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with our ſincereſt and warmeſt Congratulations on your moſt happy Eſcape from the daring and outrageous Attempt which lately threatened your invaluable Life. The ſignal Advantages which this Iſland derives from being placed more immediately under your Majeſty's gracious Protection, and the repeated and recent Inſtances of your Majeſty's kind and condeſcending Attention to its true Intereſts, inſpire us with the moſt lively Gratitude and Affection; and we cannot but felicitate ourſelves upon the providential Preſervation of a Sovereign, the Bleſſings of whoſe mild and equitable Government all His People equally participate.

At the ſame Time we are happy, in the full Conviction, that while we are teſtifying our own Joy on the Deliverance of theſe Kingdoms from one of the moſt dreadful Calamities, and offering up our ardent Prayers for the long Continuance of your benign Adminiſtration, we are not only expreſſing the Sentiments of the Inhabitants of this Iſle, but joining the general Voice of your Subjects in every other Part of your Majeſty's Dominions.

Richard Dawſon, Lieut. Gov.
Wadſworth Buſk.
Tho. Moore.
John Quayle.

By Order of the House of Keys,
John Taubman, Speaker.

The Three following Addreſſes having been tranſmitted to the Right Honourable Lord Sydney, His Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been preſented to the King: Which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Mayor, Citizens, and principal Inhabitants of the ancient and loyal City of Hereford, humbly beg Leave to approach your Throne with our warmeſt Congratulations to your Majeſty, on your late providential Eſcape from ſo horrid an Attempt made on your Royal Perſon.

Truly ſenſible of the Happineſs we enjoy, we moſt fervently pray, that your Majeſty's Reign may be long and proſperous over a free and united People.

[Signed by 87 Perſons.]

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, Inhabitants of the Town and Pariſh of Halifax, in the Weſt Riding of the County of York, moſt humbly beg Leave to approach your Royal Preſence in Teſtimony of the Joy we feel on the providential Preſervation of your Majeſty's Life from the Danger to which it was lately expoſed.

The Bleſſings we derive from your Majeſty's mild and virtuous Goverement make the Continuance of it the firſt Object of our Wiſhes; but when we reflect that the Atrocity of the Attempt on your Majeſty's Life might have juſtified more ſudden and ſummary Proceedings, yet your Majeſty's Regard for the Privileges of your People was greater than either Apprehenſion or Reſentment, our ordinary Admiration and Gratitude would be inadequate Expreſſions of our Sentiments on this Occaſion.

That the ſame Omnipotent Being, who has preſerved, may be pleaſed alſo graciouſly to prolong your Majeſty's Life; and that we may continue many Years to be bleſſed by your Majeſty's Government, and inſtructed by your ſhining Example, is the earneſt Prayer of your Majeſty's moſt dutiful Subjects.

[Signed by 978 Perſons.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, Principal and others reſident Burgeſſes of the Corporate Borough of Kidwelly, do moſt humbly ſolicit your Majeſty's gracious Acceptance of our cordial and unfeigned Congratulations upon your Majeſty's late happy Preſervation from ſo execrable and horrid an Attempt as ever the Enemy of Mankind ſuggeſted into the Heart of a Woman to perpetrate againſt your Royal Life and Dignity, a Life invaluable to your Amiable Conſort, to all the Illuſtrious Branches of the Royal Family, and, if poſſible, more ſo to all your faithful Subjects. This miraculous Deliverance from the iniquitous Purpoſes of an abandoned Wretch, we attribute to the all-wiſe Interpoſition of Providence, which ſo opportunely ſhielded your Majeſty from the direful Machinations of private Enmity; and as the preſent Criſis demands our vigorous Exertions of Gratitude to Heaven for ſo manifeſt an Eſcape, we ſhall ever acknowledge it our Duty to return ſincere Thanks to that Beneficent Being whoſe watchful Eye prevented ſo fatal a Cataſtrophe, and preſent our daily Petitions for your Majeſty's Protection from future Violence and Treachery. It is alſo our unanimous and fervent Wiſh, that if the late perfidious Inſult to deprive us of the beſt of Sovereigns has been foſtered by Cabals of Faction, the Abettors of ſo tragical a Scene may be immediately detected and brought to condign Puniſhment.

And that your Majeſty may long, very long, continue to reign over theſe Kingdoms, and in the Hearts of your People, with which the Intereſts, the Tranquility, and Happineſs of your Majeſty's Dominions are ultimately and inſeparably connected, is the devout and zealous Aſpiration of your Majeſty's moſt liege Subjects.

The Four following Addreſſes having been tranſmitted by his Grace the Duke of Rutland, Lord Lieutenant of the Kingdom of Ireland, to the Right Honourable Lord Sydney, His Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been preſented to the King: Which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

County of Cavan.

At a Meeting of the Governor, High Sheriff, Nobility, Repreſentatives, Magiſtrates, Clergy, Gentry and County at large, purſuant to public Notice from the High Sheriff at the Summer Aſſizes, held at Cavan, on Wedneſday the Thirtieth Day of Auguſt, 1786, the following Addreſs to His Majeſty was unanimouſly agreed to.

The High Sheriff in the Chair.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects, the County of Cavan, impreſſed with the higheſt Senſe of the Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's wiſe, mild and auſpicious Government, moſt humbly requeſt that your Majeſty will be graciouſly pleaſed to accept our heartfelt Congratulations, upon the Interpoſition of Providence, at a Moment which threatened to deprive us of the beſt of Kings. An Attempt upon the Sacred Majeſty of the Sovereign would have inſtantly armed our Allegiance, but that we ſtood convinced that inſanity alone could prompt to the atrocious Deed againſt a Prince ſo eminently the Father of His People.

That your Majeſty's Years may be extended to the utmoſt Term of Human Life is the unanimous Prayer of your Majeſty's faithful and affectionate Subjects, the County of Cavan, conjointly with every other Part of your Majeſty's happy and united Empire.

Signed by Order,

Rob. Sanderſon, High Sheriff.

Reſolved unanimouſly, That the High Sheriff do deliver the above Addreſs to the Right Honorable the Earl of Bellamont, Governor of the County, &c. &c. requeſting of him, that he will wait upon his Grace the Lord Lieutenant with their humble Requeſt that His Grace will be pleaſed to tranſmit it to his Majeſty.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Sovereign, Burgeſſes and Commonalty of the Town of Kinſale.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Sovereign, Burgeſſes and Commonalty of your antient and loyal Corporation of Kinſale, in the Guildhall of the ſaid Corporation aſſembled, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on your Majeſty's late happy and providential Eſcape from the mad Attempt againſt your moſt Sacred Perſon, and to expreſs our moſt fervent Wiſhes, that your Majeſty may long, very long, continue to reign over your affectionate and loyal People.

In Teſtimony whereof, the Common Seal of the ſaid Corporation is hereunto affixed, this Eighteenth Day of September, 1786.

Signed by Order,

Thomas Coleman, Town Clerk.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Sheriffs, Burgeſſes and Commons of the County of the Town of Drogheda.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty upon your late happy Eſcape from the wicked Attempt upon your Sacred Perſon, and to aſſure your Majeſty that we will not yield in Loyalty and Attachment to any of your Majeſty's Subjects, and ſhall be always ready to riſque our Lives and Properties in Defence of your moſt Illuſtrious Perſon and Government.

In Teſtimony whereof we have hereunto affixed our Common Seal, this Eighteenth Day of September, 1786.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Sovereign, Recorder, Burgeſſes and Free Commons of the Borough of Hillſborough in the County of Down.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Sovereign, Recorder, Burgeſſes and Free Commons of the Borough of Hillſborough in the County of Down, preſume, with all Humility, to expreſs our hearfelt Joy and Satisfaction at the Preſervation of your Majeſty's moſt invaluable Life from the late dangerous and horrid Attempt of a Wretch, who appears to have been actuated only by frantick Inſanity.

We are truly ſenſible of the Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's mild and auſpicious Government, the great Objects of which have always been the Support of the Conſtitution, and the Protection of the Rights and Liberties of your Subjects; and we earneſtly pray to God, long to continue your Majeſty's happy Reign over a moſt affectionate and free People.

In Teſtimony whereof we have cauſed the Common Seal of this Borough to be hereunto affixed, this Sixth Day of September, in the Twenty-ſixth Year of your Majeſty's Reign.

Will. Rogers, Sovereign.

The following Addreſs of the Nobility, Gentry and Clergy of the County of Salop, has been preſented to the King by Sir Robert Leighton, Knt. Sheriff, attended by Sir Richard Hill, Bart. and John Kynaſton, Eſqr. Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid

ſaid County, being Introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

The humble Addreſs of the Nobility, Gentry and Clergy of the County of Salop.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects the Nobility, Gentry and Clergy of the County of Salop, beg Leave to approach your Throne, and to expreſs our warmeſt Congratulations on your Majeſty's providential Eſcape from the violent Attempt made on your Royal Perſon.

On this Occaſion we have the Pleaſure of concurring with the unanimous Voice of your People, in declaring our firmeſt Sentiments and Conviction, that the mere Effects of a diſordered Mind could alone inſtigate to an Act which has alarmed, in the higheſt Degree, your faithful Subjects. But whilſt with grateful Hearts we unite in our Thankſgivings to the Almighty for your Majeſty's Safety and Deliverance, we cannot refrain from urging our ſincereſt Wiſhes that every Precaution which Prudence can ſuggeſt, may be uniformly taken to guard a Life ſo nearly connected with the deareſt Intereſts of your People.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Bailiffs, Recorder, Juſtices and Corporation of the Borough of Ludlow, in the County of Salop.

WE beg Leave to join the general Voice of our Fellow Subjects in conveying to the Throne our unfeigned Congratulations on the Failure of the late Attack upon your Majeſty's Perſon.

The Satisfaction which we feel on this Occaſion is conſiderably heightened by reflecting that the Attempt, however dangerous, did not originate from any ſettled Malice or deliberate Treaſon, but was the Effort only of a weak and diſordered Imagination.

While we lift up our Hearts with Gratitude to the Supreme Diſpoſer of all Events for this freſh Inſtance of His Goodneſs to us, we ſhall not ceaſe to offer up our Prayers to Him for the Continuance of a Life, on which the Welfare and Happineſs of theſe Kingdoms ſo eſſentially depend.

Given under our Hands and Common Seal of the ſaid Borough, the Twenty-ſixth Day of September, 1786.

[Signed by 22 Perſons.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Bailiff, Recorder, Juſtice and Capital Burgeſſes of the Borough of Biſhop's Caſtle.

WE beg Leave to convey thoſe Sentiments of Joy which we feel in common with all our Fellow Subjects on your Majeſty's Deliverance from the Danger to which your Life was lately expoſed. When we contemplate the general Loyalty and Affection which bind every Order of Men to your Majeſty's Perſon, we are well convinced that no rational Individual could be found by whom ſo deſperate a Deſign would ever have been formed; and we humbly hope, that while we continue to offer up our Prayers for your Majeſty's Preſervation, no neceſſary or ſalutary Precaution will be neglected that may tend to guard a Life ſo juſtly dear to your People.

It gives us the greateſt Pleaſure that we can aſſure your Majeſty the People in our ſeveral Pariſhes feel equal Joy in your Majeſty's late Preſervation, and entertain like Sentiments of Loyalty and Affection to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government with ourſelves, and it ſhall be our conſtant Endeavour to cheriſh in their Minds the lively Senſe they have of the many Bleſſings they enjoy under your Majeſty's mild Adminiſtration.

That Almighty God, through our Lord Jeſus Chriſt, may bleſs your Majeſty and your Majeſty's Royal Conſort and Family with all Temporal and Spiritual Bleſſings, is, and ever ſhall be, the moſt earneſt Prayer of, may it pleaſe your Majeſty, your Majeſty's moſt faithful, moſt obedient, and moſt loyal Subjects, the Miniſters of the Preſbytery of Forfar.

George Dempſter, Provoſt.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Provoſt, Magiſtrates and Town-Council of the Borough of Dundee.

PERMIT us, moſt gracious Sovereign, to preſent to the Throne the unfeigned Congratulations of dutiful Subjects on the late Interpoſition of Providence, which mercifully ſhielded your Sacred Perſon in the moſt threatening Danger.

With theſe Congratulations, allow us to unite our Wiſhes with thoſe of a whole grateful Nation, that the ſame Providence, which has ſo long diſtinguiſhed your Royal Family, and made it great among the Princes of the Earth, may continue to make your Majeſty Its peculiar Care, and lengthen out your Days, for the gracious Purpoſe of diſpenſing to a free and a happy People theſe ineſtimable Bleſſings which they have ſo eminently enjoyed during your Majeſty's mild and equitable Government.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor and Chief Burgeſſes of the Borough of Newtown, has been preſented to the King by Fitzwilliam Barrington, Eſq; Mayor, attended by George Mackenzie Macauley, Eſq; one of the Burgeſſes, and John Barrington and Mark Gregory, Eſqrs. To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Chief Burgeſſes of the ancient Borough of Newtown, in the Iſle of Wight and County of Southampton, beg Leave to join the general Voice of your People in congratulating your Majeſty on the Failure of an Attempt which might have proved fatal to your Majeſty's Perſon, and hurtful in a high Degree to your flouriſhing Dominions.

Although we rejoice in that Form of Government under which we live, where the ſeveral Sorts of Authority are tempered by each other, and by fixed Laws, yet we are fully convinced that the perſonal Character of the King is of extreme Importance to the National Welfare; and we are perſuaded that in the the Annals of our Country there is no Inſtance to be found of more exemplary and amiable Virtue among the reigning Princes than that of which we feel the happy Influence.

Theſe Conſiderations cannot fail to give additional Strength and Ardor to every Sentiment of Dread and Horror, to every Feeling of Loyalty and Affection, which the preſent Occaſion muſt naturally call forth.

May the Wiſdom of Government provide, that what, according to its intended Effect was to have produced a dreadful Calamity, ſhall in Reality be productive of no permanent Evil; may it never have a Tendency to interrupt the Communication between your Majeſty and your faithful Subjects: On the contrary, as in the Government of Providence we find Good perpetually ſpringing out of Evil, ſo may we now find an Attempt to commit an Act of Deſtruction become the Source of ſuch Plans of Security, that your Majeſty's benevolent and liberal Attention to your Subjects ſhall ever have free Scope, without occaſioning any Degree of Danger to yourſelf, or exciting any Anxiety in the Breaſts of your affectionate People.

In Witneſs whereof we have cauſed our Common Seal to be hereunto affixed, this Fourth Day of October, in the Year of our Lord, 1786.
